Clash With Poles Narrowly Averted

WARSAW, November 25.—Armed conflict between Polish forces and Bolshevik troops which have reached the Polish frontier along the Zbrucz river was narrowly averted yesterday when the Bolsheviks began a bombardment of the town of Podwoloczyska, about 25 miles east of Tarnopol. Polish military authorities protested against the bombardment which caused the deaths of five persons and serious injury of 10 others.

The Poles were preparing to attack the Bolsheviks when the bombardment stopped, and the Soviet commander sent a delegation to the town, explaining the place was fired upon because of a misunderstanding. The Bolsheviks believed the place was east of the armistice line and in the hands of Ukrainians.

General Perykhin's Russian army, which was attempting to cooperate with Simon Petliura's Ukrainians, has virtually been destroyed. It is said in dispatches from Tarnopol, and the Bolsheviks have reached the eastern bank of the Zbrucz along its entire length.

Reports also indicate that Petliura's army, commanded by General Pavlenko has been wiped out. More than 25,000 fugitives from these armies have recently crossed the Polish frontier and have been dispersed by the Poles and sent to various internment camps.

SMALL COUNTRIES DEMANDING VOICE IN LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

GENEVA, November 25.—Committee meetings again featured today's session of the assembly of the League of Nations. Several of these bodies, charged with examination of projects laid before the assembly and the preparation of reports, are believed to have nearly completed work, and it is expected that debate on their conclusions may begin in a few days.

Distinct lines of cleavage seem to be making their appearance at the meeting of the assembly, delegates from the smaller nations insisting that the countries they represent should play an influential role in the work of the league, and the council of the league, Scandinavian and South American representatives are prominent in the conversations occurring at session of the assembly and it is expected their leaders are planning to take part in the debates, which will begin soon.

Poland's Perykhin, foreign minister of Argentina, and one of the nations' representatives, is one of the leaders in demanding that smaller nations should elect four members of the council of the league, and he seems to have the support of a number of influential delegations. Sweden, Norway and Denmark evidently purpose to take to the floor of the assembly the right for amendments to the covenant of the league. In addition several nations have taken decided views regarding the economic blockade, the international court and mandatories. The proceedings of the assembly, which are at present really being carried on by the committees, may be considered as merely preliminary to its real work, which will begin when these committees submit reports and debate begins.

LIVING WAGE FOR FAMILY $2,632.68

NEW YORK, November 25.—A living wage for a family of five in New York City is $2,632.68. It was estimated today by John F. Munn, president of the Printing Press and Feeders' Union, in presenting demands for an increase of wages in the printing trade.

These figures were arrived at, he said by an actual canvass of the homes of printers and an analysis of current prices on 400 miscellaneous articles necessary to the average wage earners' household.

Expenditures were itemized as follows:

Food, $571.96; clothing, $379.96; rent, $137.35; light and heat, $68.39; household equipment, $99.23; miscellaneous, $465.75.

Ex-President Is Improving

PARIS, November 25.—Paul Deschanel, whose resignation as president of the French republic was forced by illness last summer, has greatly improved in health, writes Andre Verrier in the newspaper Le Figaro. It is declared the former president is gaining in weight and a continued rest of only a few weeks is necessary to bring about his complete recovery.

The writer continues reports that it is planned to offer M. Deschanel the senatorship from the Eure-et-Loire department, asserting it is proposed to make his election spontaneous like that of former President Poincaré from the Meuse department.

President-Elect Basking In Sunshine

ANCON, CANAL ZONE, November 25.—President-elect and Mrs. Warren G. Harding observed Thanksgiving Day here today. Although gray skies may have prevailed over much of the United States, a scorching tropical sun bathed this city, the Pacific terminus of the Panama Canal, while the president-elect had dinner. He was a guest in the home of Colonel Chester Hilditch, governor of the canal zone, who is his host during his visit here, leaving the morning hours, Mr. and

CONFERENCE MAY DECIDE BIG QUESTION

PARIS, November 25.—Premier George Leygues left for London this morning at 9:45 o'clock. While in that city, he will confer with Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, relative to questions arising from the recent Greek election, the Russian situation, and problems relative to the near east. There are indications that the meeting of the French and British premiers may assume a more important aspect than was contemplated by their original plans. Former Premier Venizelos of Greece is said by the Matin to be planning to hurry his trip northward from Italy to participate in the conference in London and the same newspaper declares Premier Giolitti of Italy will also take part.

An Athens dispatch states that Premier Rallis has declared that if allied premiers hold a meeting, a representative of the Greek government would attend to explain the real significance of recent events in that country.

Patch Your House With Homemade Stone

Possibly you do not know how to put on a stone patch when the necessity arises.

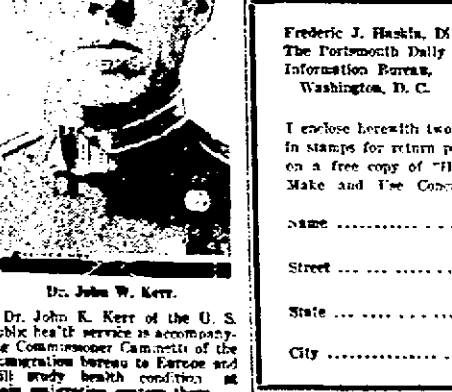

Well, our Washington Information Bureau will give you this up-to-the-minute information.

It has a recipe bulletin on the subject entitled "How To Make and Use Concrete."

Anybody with this bulletin in hand can mix up a batch of fluid concrete. It may then be poured in to a mold for a door-step, a decorated foundation, a rotted gate post, a garden wall. It hardens like concrete, and will endure forever.

This bulletin is one of the series of practical helps to the householder that we offer for free distribution.

You should get every one of them as they are advertised and file them away against the time for need.

Dr. John W. Kerr of the U. S. public health service is accompanying the Commissioner of the immigration bureau to Europe and will study health conditions at main immigration centers there.

Thanksgiving

Everybody in Portsmouth has something for which to be thankful. Many people, there may be, who can't figure it that way. But it pays—makes a person happier, adds much to the joy of living, to reason along optimistic lines. In other words, if turkey meat was too high in price, biting into a yellow-legged chicken is the finest meat in all the world while rabbit or spare ribs are delicious.

Portsmouth has much for which to be thankful—blue laws and all. People smile here in sunshine or rain—best natured folks on earth—few growlers, many helpers. In short the best community in all the world. A Portsmouthite is thankful he is living and moves and has his being right here in the Port of Peace City.

All in all 1920 has been a great year for Portsmouth, and here's hoping the coming year will be even greater.

The Times is hoping every citizen will have his fill of good things to eat this glad day, and that happiness and prosperity, joy and gladness will be their portion in the year to come.

LET'S ALL GIVE THANKS.

Mrs. MacSwiney Coming To U. S.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Murphy MacSwiney, widow of Lord Mayor James MacSwiney of Cork, and Mary MacSwiney, his sister, who are journeying to the United States to testify before the committee of one hundred investigating the Irish question, embarked quietly on the steamer Celtic today. Few people were aware that they were sailing.

They were accompanied on the tender which took them to the Celtic by Mrs. MacSwiney's brother-in-law and Mrs. MacSwiney's widow of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, Mayor MacSwiney's professor who was murdered last March.

"As Ye Sow-So Shall Ye Reap"

BERLIN, November 25.—Bitterness marked a debate in the Reichstag today relative to the voting of appropriations to carry out provisions of the Versailles treaty. Members of the chamber denounced the action of the allies in keeping such a large force of men along the Rhine, and in particular assailed France for sending negro troops into Germany.

Dr. Zapp, a member of the German people's party, said Germany's financial situation seemed hopeless. He pointed out that interest charges on the budget alone amounted to 12,500,000,000 marks and declared the conduct of French officers and their families in the Rhineland was provoking a growing irritation.

If Russian Soviet troops," he declared, "should appear on Germany's eastern frontier, they would not find the united industrial nation of former years, but a people broken down morally."

Rudolf Dretscheld, a leader of the moderate independent league, said the nation's burdens were not a result of the "infamous conduct of her enemies," but the sequel of Germany's pre-war policies.

"Germany's collapse," he continued, "was not due to the pacifists, but to the men who praised war as the fountain of youth and the bath of steel."

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer you and all questions concerning love, matrimony, dress, manners, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—How wide and how long a heart can the locks on the Ohio river be made?
ANSWER OF THE TIMES.
 The locks are 600 feet long and 110 feet wide.
 Dear Dolly—Please tell me what to put in my popcorn fritters to keep them brittle and also please tell me to whom I can apply for a job as Pullman conductor.
THANK YOU.
 Try this on your popcorn fritters: Roll together a cup of molasses and a tablespoon of vinegar until it cracks when put into cold water. Have ready finely chopped corn which has been soaked from all partly cooked or hard potatoes, commonly called "salt." Pour the molasses over the corn and as soon as it cools enough to handle, roll into balls. Pullman conductors are usually promoted from one thing to another until they reach a position like that. I doubt if you can get a job as conductor without being in the service of the railroad company for a certain length of time. However you might apply to Superintendent Harry C. Welser, at the C. and N. W. Terminal, or to the C. and O. and B. and O. of Adams.

SOOR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Thedford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Doctor for Troubles Resulting from Turpentine Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Thedford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is attested by Mr. W. H. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in clearing the bowels of impurities.

Thedford's Black-Draught Liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Thedford's.

Dear Dolly—Please settle this argument. Which is the farthest west, the mouth of the Mississippi or the mouth of the Ohio?

ADVANCE.
 The Ohio river empties into the Mississippi river at Cairo, Illinois. The Mississippi empties into the Gulf of Mexico at New Orleans.

SOCIETY
 The Elks club, in gala attire, made an attractive scene last evening for the Thanksgiving formal dance arranged for by Alan N. Jordan, George Ahlert and Paul Dwyer. Streamers of black and yellow, together with palms and floor lamps, transformed the ball room, making an effective background for the dancing. The music, gay foxtrots, one-steps, was furnished by Young's Neli House Orchestra of Columbus.

Punch served during the evening was quite refreshing and at midnight the guests were served at small tables in the banquet hall with a delicious turkey, oyster, cranberry, candied sweet potatoes, pumpkin pie and coffee. Plush chairs, anemone baskets of candles were the favors for the ladies, and for each gentleman a large stick of candy tied with ribbon, marked the places.
 Among those who attended were: Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Duschinski, Floyd C. Falker, E. H. Goodman, Chris Heer, Alan Jordan, Pearl Klingman, Robert Lewis, A. J. McFarland, J. L. ## Her Own Career

BY PHILLIS PHILLIPS

THE GREAT DECISION
 "Fern, dear, I don't want to go back to Millerstown," announced Gwendolyn over her second cup of coffee one morning about two weeks after her arrival in New York.

Her cousin looked up at her quickly, startled for a minute, and then burst out laughing.

"Of course you don't, goosey; did you think that I didn't know that? No reason in the world for you to do so, either. Plenty of room in this town for a girl like you, and any amount of opportunity for you to make good in whatever sort of work you want to do."

"It's not only that I want a chance to do something really big here, while I am young, Fern," went on Gwendolyn, reflectively, "but I don't want to go back to Millerstown and the life there, anyhow. I simply couldn't now," said she, with a tragic break in her voice.

"I'm afraid in my mind, and I don't know what I want to do, nor where I want to go. I just want to be my own mistress, and I am free to fly anywhere, and in my own way," responded Fern, and another thing, Gwendolyn, even if you did go home now, as your mother evidently wants you to do, you'd never stay. You're on the right road at present, and you've got to follow it a good bit farther before you'll be satisfied to turn back and become a vegetable again. Take my advice and settle here for a while, and then decide what you think is best. Just do not be in any hurry, my dear."

Gwendolyn smiled and kicked off one orange slipper at these words, then fell to studying her pink toes earnestly. She was an entirely different girl from the one who had come down after day after day at the farm, a girl in a gray dress and a starched apron, ready for the morning's chores. Her black hair was now styled loosely about her shoulders, and she wore a vivid orange negligee, caudal here and there with knots of black, which was startlingly picturesque as well as becoming to her.

Gwendolyn had turned to color with a stretch and a sigh of delight. From childhood she had been taught to avoid all colors, and had been forced to be content with wearing drabs and grays, with an occasional discreet blue for special gala occasions. Yet she had

BILLY WHISKERS

BY FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

Mike and Jim continued to have the care of Billy. After their first experience in trying to keep him, described a few days ago, they never attempted anything of the sort again. As a matter of fact, they soon became very much attached to their charges and took a great deal of pride in seeing that they always looked their best, both when they were on parade and when they entered the ring.

A rival circus sent two desperate characters to try and poison Billy because he was drawing all the money and their business was very bad in consequence. Mike caught these two fellows putting paria green in Billy's salad one night. With the help of Jim he held them until assistance came and the would-be murderers were turned over to the police.

When the manager heard of this he complimented the keepers on their watchfulness and doubled their pay. They forgave the attempt they had made to steal him and after that they were always good friends.

During the summer the big circus visited the large cities and towns of most of the western states, going as far west as Denver, Colorado. It then turned eastward once more, and Billy

There was nobody who took the place of little Dick. He knew by this time he could never again make a star friend. Then there were old Bob Abbie (the black cat), the lay cat and other horses, Big Red, the feline but and his wives, and—for space and variety—the thoroughbred old count down in the big chestnut, and forgetting Foggy Parrot, sharp and snappish though she certainly was, Billy was beginning to think of them all more and more often and the wish to see them and be with them again was growing greater day by day.

While spending a Sunday in St. Louis late in September he addressed a letter to his friend Bob at Clermont Farm.

It prevents very clearly his frame of mind at this time and throws many highlights on his circus life.

(Tomorrow you may read Billy Whiskers' letter.)

Games This Week

Thursday, Nov. 25—Surgeons vs Bowers, Play House.
Friday, Nov. 26—Tramps vs Morles, Play House.

The Royals took a couple from the Waltons at the Play House alley last night, and some history was made. Thereby. After winning the two games, the Royals held a council of war, and "win" up on their blind legs as rolled like champions, getting the high score of the league, 514—some distinction at least. Thomas Dupuy helped out with 120—yipped.

The best worker of the evening, so far as totals are concerned, was Mr. Ted Chuliffe, who shot for a total of 548 and got high score of the evening, 212. Ted was away out these last night, gathering six strikes in a row and looked to have the high total cinched, when a ball hit stopped his progress toward the goal line. Dr. Keyes was there forty ways from the Jack, getting a total of 534 and one game of 242, equalling the great work of his team mate. Captain Keyes is hitting 'em as well as any player in the league and is going to be right near the top of individual averages when the whistle blows. Salem Shaw got one game of 218, and Earl Case cracked the wood for 222. The writer of this effusion had expected to pass up the work of the Walton's anchor man—in fact had so agreed. But Earl redeemed himself to such an extent that his name is spelled properly and his work given in full. The scores:

All Ye Volley Ball, Basket Ball And Bowlers

I have just received another lot of "Jim" balls and bowling shoes. One made of the best grade of white canvas, black leather trim and first quality of red rubber suction sole (like cut) — the "Jim" of black dougla with pearl electric soles. This shoe I have made especially for all indoor sports and is recommended by men of authority. Why take a chance of slipping and injuring yourself. Be sure on your feet and help your team win. Ordinary street shoes are not correct for sports.

BENNETT-BABCOCK CO OPTICIANS

ALL EYE STRAIN SHOULD GET ATTENTION.
There is no such thing as eye strain that is slight enough to be neglected. Any error of refraction that is important enough to produce eye strain is important enough to demand correction. And here is another point—nothing is gained by putting it off from time to time. In cases of eye strain DO IT NOW should be the practice. We correct all degrees of eye strain with glasses.
